

Rifle Shipping Instructions

If you are shipping a rifle to Precision Rifle Concepts, please follow these guidelines and notes:

1. Verify with Precision Rifle Concepts that we are ready to receive your rifle: (your position in the queue has come up). For inquiries on queue position: sales@ultimatereloader.com
2. Remove your scope from the rifle (to avoid scope removal/re-install fee).
3. Pack rifle and parts VERY carefully, wrap each individual part or parts bag with bubble wrap or foam to prevent damage. Ultimate Reloader is not responsible for damage in shipping.
4. Pack in a sturdy box, it is a good idea to double-box your rifle.
5. It is OK to leave action installed in stock (with action screws holding in place).
6. Purchase insurance for your shipment.
7. USPS is typically the most cost-effective shipping carrier for firearms.
8. Make sure to purchase tracking, and require signature on delivery.
9. Customer is responsible for shipping in both directions.
10. An FFL is not required for you to ship your rifle to us for gunsmithing services, we are an FFL.
